Subject: Proposed EV incentives
Hello Julie Anne,

I support your EV initiative. Please make sure you go ahead with it as soon as possible, and not in 2 years. The point is to accelerate the EV presence NOW, and not in X number of years down the track.

We've been driving an EV for almost 2 years now and can tell you they are brilliant. A year ago I started selling them at one of the Auckland dealerships. It's very disheartening to get this sort of emails from some of our potential clients:

"I don't want to buy a Leaf now, waiting to see if the government will have the bill to pay incentive for my ev-ride, so I will wait and see."

And what do I reply to that? That maybe the government finally does some sort of $$ incentive or maybe nothing at all...

This proposal is postponing the adoption of EVs and not promoting it at the moment!

Thanks.
